- Meals are billed quarterly (Sept., Dec., Mar., and June)
- Dues are billed once, although you may pay quarterly if you set this up with the Club treasurer (Jean Obenour – 740-387-3788 or jean@customaccounting.com)
- Active members have to pay for their meals whether they attend the meetings or not and are billed a quarter in advance.

Kiwanis International charges our Club dues for any member on our roster as of October 1 each year. So, if a member should resign in November or December (and have not paid their dues) they will be billed for those dues.

CLUB OF MARION

Corporate Members

“Corporate Members” must have 25 or more employees in their organization.

Dues: Dues cover International dues, Ohio District dues, Club dues, Kiwanis magazine, and Club liability insurance. $146 for the first member. The first member will be the “corporate member” for Kiwanis International purposes. $146 for second member. $41 for third member. Maximum of 3 members per organization. $333 per year flat fee for maximum 3 individuals from the organization.

Corporate members may be switched with new members by their company without incurring additional New Member Fees.

Meals: $14 per person charged only if a person attends a meeting (but a minimum of one meal, or $14, per person). Examples: if all three of the organization’s individuals attend a single meeting, the organization will be charged $42; if only one individual attends a particular meeting, $14 will be billed; if no one attends a particular meeting, nothing will be charged. However, if no one attends a single meeting in a particular month, the minimum charge of $14 will be billed.
